An interesting collection of mostly very scarce publications, occasionally providing fascinating numismatic tidbits. Lemley's Bankers Coin Book, for example, notes: "The book does not contain pattern pieces which are listed in fake dealer's ads as a 'Jew'." For example, we could offer $500 for the 1913 liberty head nickel, for which another dealer offers $100. We don't do it because there are only 50 of the coins made severely through dishonesty of a mint employee, and most have been called in or are in the hands of collectors who wouldn't sell at any price."

A Fully Annotated Sales Room Copy of Jenks in the Original Mailing Box

720 Chapman, Henry. CATALOGUE OF THE JOHN STORY JENKS COLLECTION OF COINS, ANCIENT GREEK, ROMAN AND THE ENTIRE WORLD, EARLY AMERICAN COLONIAL AND STATE ISSUES AND UNITED STATES PATTERNS AND THE REGULAR ISSUES. Philadelphia, December 7-17, 1921. xii, 653, (1) pages, set of half-tone reprint plates included in a separate envelope, handprinted in pencil with many buyers' names throughout, numerous textual corrections by an accomplished numismatist, other annotations. Quarto: 318 x 247 mm. Original white cloth, lettered in gilt, in the original cardboard mailing box. Very fine. (500.00)

Clain-Stefanelli 1997*. Grierson page 276. Sigler page 1393. The most famous of the Chapman sales and perhaps the most important American coin auction ever held. For years it served as the best American single reference guide to the emergence of numismatics. Of great importance for the study of ancient Greek and Roman coins alone, also featured was an incredible selection of medieval and modern European coins, as well as a particularly important and extensive series of British coins. The American coins, from colonials to pioneer gold, were also of prime importance. Given its wide use as a reference, the virgin white cloth, and its weight (nearly six pounds in a fragile binding), clean, sound copies are notoriously difficult to locate. This example is in a remarkably fine state of preservation showing but slight soiling on the fore-edge from frequent paging through the catalogue in the course of the sale. The covers are unusually clean and free of wear, the gilt lettering is crisp and bright, and the contents are tight. The shipping box is worn but intact. B. G. Johnson's numerous purchases appear to be noted throughout and this may well be his personal sales room copy. Other buyers noted include Mehl, S. H. (Chapman), Bauer, Henry (Chapman), Dietz, Elder, (A. H.) Baldwin, Clapp, Sternberg, Ryder, Boyd, Beistle, Starr, Adams, etc. Other names appear to be given in code (Nest, Sei, Rose, Late, Tact, Odd, etc.). Handprinted throughout, with virtually all of the buyers' names in the American portion of the sale and the majority elsewhere. Included as well are descriptions of additional lots sold in the sale but not printed in the catalogue. What appear to be commission bids are underlined in blue pencil with client's code names, or perhaps limits, in regular pencil. One can only imagine the fortitude required to sit through all ten sessions, meticulously recording prices and buyers' names as well as actively bidding throughout. Extremely rare if not unique priced with buyers' names.

(75.00) Andrew's publication (1903) of "A Numismatic History of the Reign of Henry I" precipitated the controversy which led directly to the formation of the British Numismatic Society two years later and the birth of the British Numismatic Journal. Andrew's "Notes" were written in 1898, and the article in the Numismatic Chronicle was published in 1901. Crump & Johnson's critique of "Henry I" in 1903 was published directly as "Crown's required information of Mr. Andrew's reply to this offer" "His '79th' serves the 18th '61" "Anno Domini" and deals largely with what Andrew considered to be an unmitigated falsehood of his predecessor by the Secretary of the Society, H. A. Gruener. Extremely rare, and adds considerably to an understanding of Andrew's position in this legendary controversy. Vade Carson's A History of the Royal Numismatic Society for further details.

Tipped at the beginning is a delightful letter from John Shirley-Fox, dated Aug. 6, 1936, to a Mr. Farnam apologizing for not having sent the "reprints" sooner. Quoting Mark Twain, he hopes that Farnam will get them "eventually if not sooner." He goes on to discuss a number of numismatic topics including his classifying the "Boynot" (board for the British Museum) "Did not trouble to select a single specimen for my self?" and mentions that "the urge" to get them is no longer so great, and that "I rarely get a new one." He also notes that the London Congress meeting was "spent mainly with the French representatives as they were one of the very few foreign Englishmen whom talk numismatics in French as well as English. You see I was brought up in France." In closing, he refers once again to the "books" being sent, saying "Remember when we wrote them it had been made by anyone to get these pennies into defined classes--we started from scratch!" Mr. Farnam may be the Melbourne collector Roy W., whose collection, according to Manville and Robertson, was put together by Scaby in 1960.

An early member of the Montreal Numismatic Society. Sandham initiated publication of The Canadian Antiquarian and Numismatic Journal in 1872 and served as its editor for several years. His 1869 work was the first substantial book on Canadian numismatics. That a second edition was planned is clear from the title page where it is noted: "From the Second Edition - Copy Right Secured." Current survival would suggest that sales of the first edition were disappointing which may explain why the second edition never appeared. Today, the original edition is infrequently encountered; with the supplement and in nice original condition it is rare.
